

I pray that you will understand the words of Jesus, "Love one another as I have loved you." Ask yourself "How has he loved me? Do I really love others in the same way?" Unless this love is among us, we can kill ourselves with work and it will only be work, not love. Work without love is slavery.

— Mother Teresa —

AZQUOTES

When the Lord calls us into ministry He gives us a heart for that ministry. The Lord placed on my heart to love all those who are confined as patients suffering in healthcare facilities. When I visit these poor people they are like family and as I get to know them better we become like real family to each other.

Over the years I have shown many suffering souls the love of Christ by sharing His love along with my love with the patients and even at times with the family members and staff. I would share the Word of God with the patients and pray for them, read my stories, poems, and writings to them, and I would at times bring in things like stuffed animals and prayer shawls, Bibles, my books, devotionals, and whatever I could in order to lift up and brighten their day.

I am a writer of stories, poems, and writings for the glory of God and as such I have included many of the patients in my stories and books over the years, and it really helped in lifting their spirits and in helping them to feel very special and loved.

Sharing Christ's love merged with my love is not about being in a physical or sexual manner, this kind of love is in the spiritual as being in a close friendship and family love. For the Word of God teaches that all believers in Christ are Brothers and Sisters in Christ and as such we are to love one another as Christ loves us.

John 15:11-17 LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU

These I have spoken to you so that My joy might be in you and that your joy might be complete. This is My command that you love one another as I have loved you, no one has greater love than this, that one should lay down his life for his friends.

You are My friend if you do whatever I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing, but I have called you friends, for all which I heard from My Father I have made known to you. You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should remain so that whatever You ask the Father in My name He might give you.

This is My command, so that you love one another.

It is a radical concept to love one another as Christ Yeshua loves us, for the Word of God teaches that we are to love thy neighbor as thy self, and we are to treat others as we ourselves would want to be treated and we are to be Good Samaritans by placing Service Above Self in reaching out in helping others for the glory of God.

We are to pray for our enemies and for those who spitefully use us, The Word of God tells us that if someone takes our coat we are to give them our shirt as well. If our neighbor hates us and is mean to us and causes us a lot of stress and aggravation, we are to forgive them and we are to love them as Christ loves us, and we are to treat them with kindness, and compassion, we are to love thy neighbor as thy self.

Not a very easy thing to do now is it? How many believers in Christ actually follow His teachings these days by applying His love, kindness, compassion, and forgiveness to their fellow man?

Pastor Shon who is a patient in the healthcare facility where I serve is a mighty man of God who suffers dearly each day, this very humble servant of our Lord always tells all those around him these very powerful seven words,

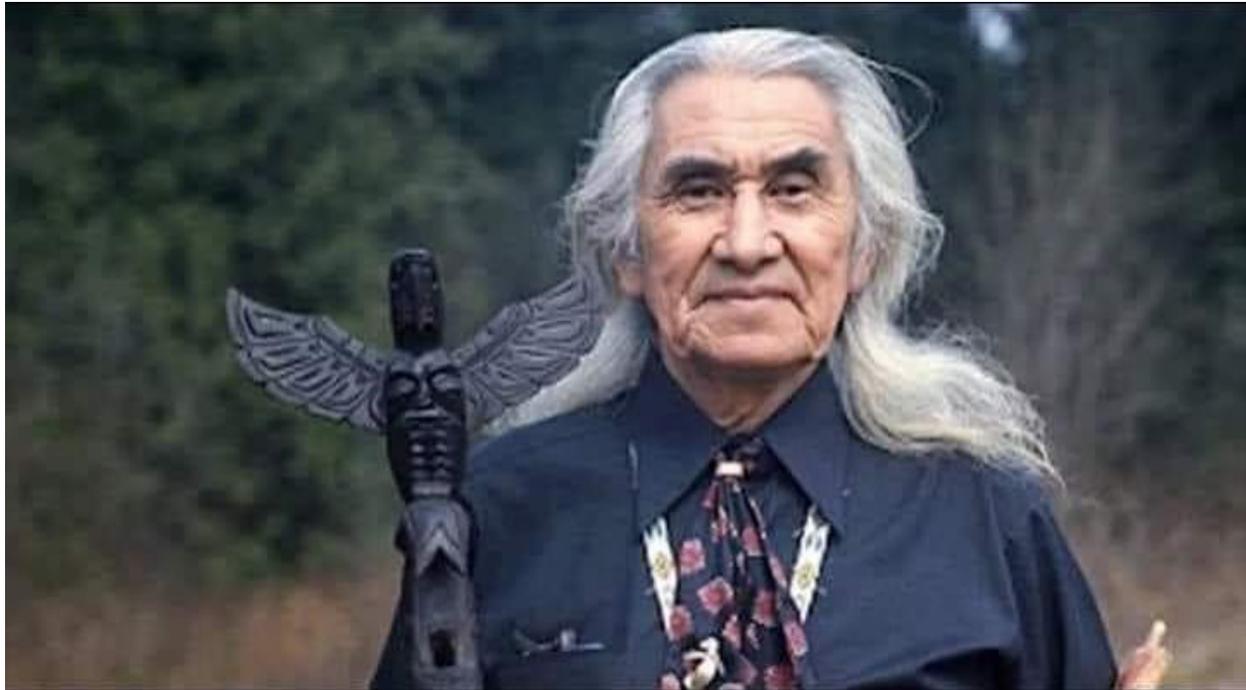

“Jesus Loves you and so do I.”

In a darkened world lacking of compassion, kindness, forgiveness, and love I can think of nothing more fitting to begin saying to one another in sharing the love of Christ.

The number 7 in the Bible is a number that represents, Completion, Perfection, Fullness, Abundance, and Rest for the glory of God...Amen

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you, not as the world gives do I give to you, let not your heart be troubled neither let it be afraid...Amen

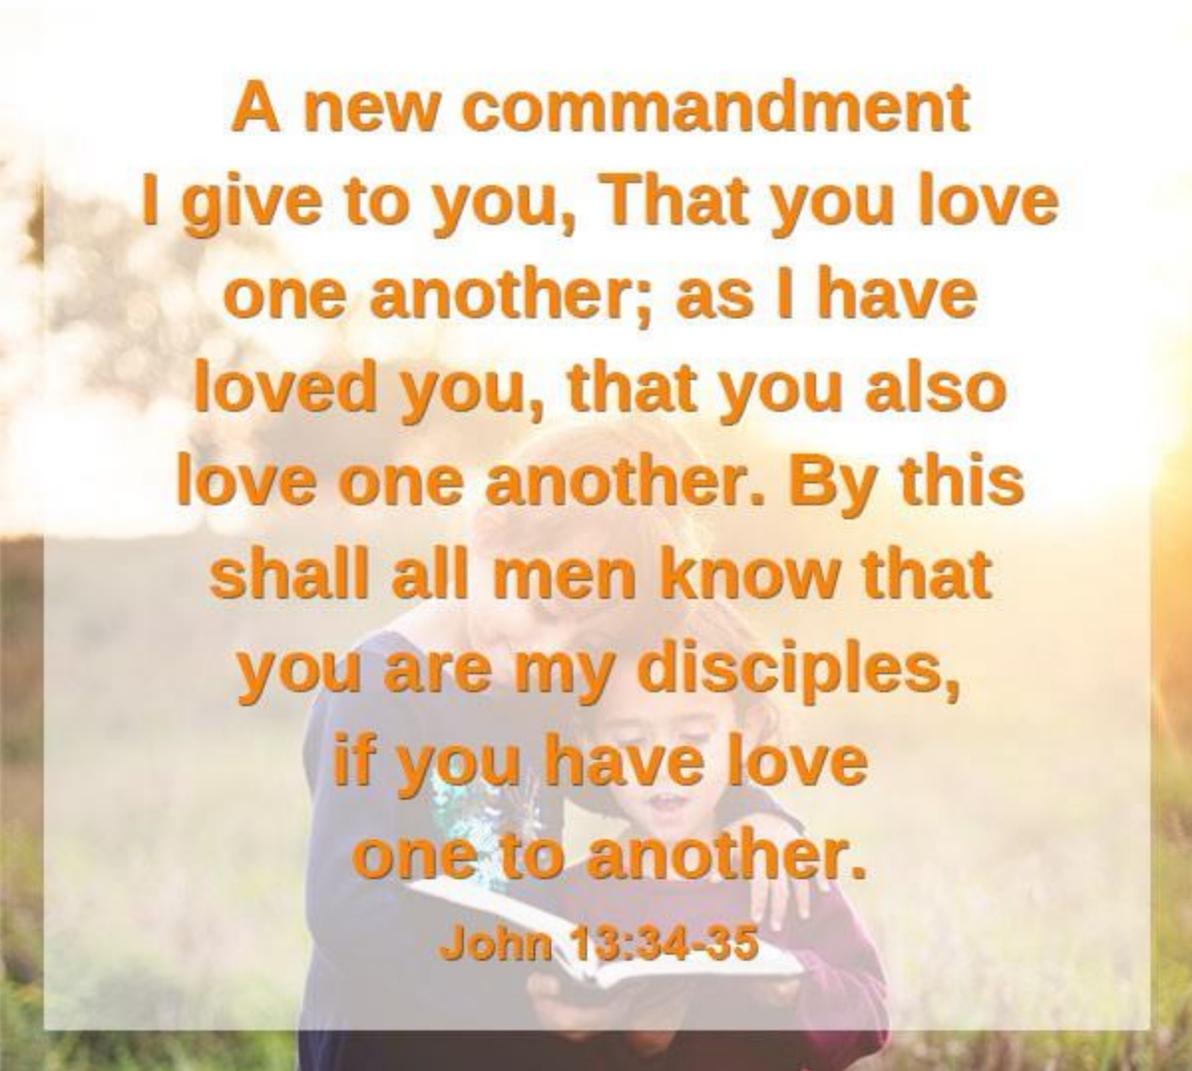

“It is hard for me to understand a culture that not only hates and fights his brothers but even attacks Nature and abuses her. Man must love all creation or he will love none of it. Love is something you and I must have. We must have it because our spirit feeds upon it. Without love our self esteem weakens. Without it our courage fails.

Without love we can no longer look out confidently at the world. Instead we turn inwardly and begin to feed upon our own personalities and little by little we destroy ourselves.”

- Chief Dan George -

A woman and a young child are shown from the chest up, reading a book together in a field. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a sunset or sunrise, with the sun visible on the right side of the frame. The woman has her arm around the child, and they both appear to be focused on the text in the book.

A new commandment
I give to you, That you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this shall all men know that you are my disciples,
if you have love
one to another.

John 13:34-35

Luke 6:36 Therefore be compassionate as your Father also is compassionate.

“Yeshua Loves you and so do I, love Chaplain Paul 2A7193.”

April 9 2022

