

TWO PEAS IN A POD

by a good friend of a guy named Todd

There once was a man and a woman who lived across town from each other. The man whose name was Lyle and the woman whose name was Jill lived about 10 or 12 miles away from each other just up the hill.

Lyle and Jill would sit in front of their laptops for hours in a day, they were always searching for attention on social media hopping back and forth from Face Book to Twitter desperately looking for attention.

They would post very creative posts with very clever questions and they would post really cool pictures looking for likes. But sadly the likes they were hoping to get were few and far between.

Then at some point depression set in, O and here comes that awful feeling of rejection knocking at their door.

"O no what if no one cares."

Then anxiety hits like a flood and BOOM down you go plopped on the couch eating a big bowl of baked mac for comfort with a gallon of rocky road ice cream for dessert. YUM YUM!!!!

At some point I really don't know when even though I'm writing this lame story Lyle and Jill decided to go volunteer somewhere in reaching out in helping people in need.

Lyle and Jill were led by the Spirit of God to a Medical Rehab and care center in Phoenix and began to visit the patients and in a very short time they realized that the attention and love they were missing and seeking in life was right in front of them all along. The patients and family members gave Lyle and Jill all the attention and love they could get, then one day Lyle and Jill started to date and the rest of these story is whatever you want to dream up which I know is a little bit odd, O and as for me, well I'm just a good friend of a guy named Todd.

John 14:26

"So now I am
giving you a new commandment:
Love each other.
Just as I have loved you, you
should love each other. Your love
for one another
will prove to the world that you
are my disciples."
John 13:34-35
(NLT)

JOHN 15:12 AND THIS IS MY COMANDMENT THAT YOU LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU
