

Broken Wings

By Chaplain America 193 Nov 19 2020

I used to fly free as a bird without a care in the world, life was like a dream sailing across the Milky Way Galaxy. Back in the day we ran the show little did we know where we were going in life. To live in a dream set in 1984 where Van Halen ruled the day and in 1986 we seemed to reach out and catch the tail of Halley's Comet and take a ride on cloud nine.

We wrote our one destiny, O that's how it seemed at the time and as the years seemed to just fall away like so many Autumn leaves during a sudden gust of wind we rounded second headed for third base in our lives. Then in the blink of an eye we blew thru the 90s. We hit a bump in the road with 911 and just like that it was the year 2010. New beginnings in my life coming home from Kingman State Prison on the January 4th 2010 the 14 year anniversary of my Father's death. My Pal Blazer was there to greet me after I was gone for almost two years.

Soon no more beers and then my family cried a thousand more tears when the storms of life came blowing in very hard once again, but through it all our faith in Christ our Lord helped my Family get through the pouring rain in having to deal with our sorrow and pain and then just like that in a twinkling of an eye here we are in yet another nightmare called Covid19.

Now reality sets in full on in our face as we all deal with the hardship of a national disgrace. A Presidential election that nearly tore our nation apart and a healthcare system that could give a damn about providing real compassion and love and yet here we still are slugging it out as we get thru life, for we are like Vikings on a ship and from where I sit the hope of land is still many miles away. Take heart, I have faith we will still get there one day anyway...Amen

A bird with a broken wing sits helpless by the seashore as a lone wolf slowly comes walking its way, then suddenly a shot is heard and the wolf turns and runs for its life. A kind boy runs over to the hurt little bird and scoops it up and takes him back home to be cared for so the little bird will one day have a chance to fly once more. John 14:27 PALS
