

IMAGINING A PEACEFUL WORLD IN CHRIST YESHUA

Within my own thoughts I began to imagine a world of compassion peace kindness and brotherly love. I imagined a time where the lion rests with the ring-necked dove. A place where colorful butterflies dance in perfect harmony, a place where people help each other throughout the day I imagine no wars or poverty or neglect, a place of hope where tranquil waters and pastures of comfort and rest abound. I can imagine life being lived to the fullest as our Lord and Savior rules this Earth during His 1000-year millennium rein... I imagine a place of peace and rest that surpasses all understanding...Amen John 14:27

What a beautiful and powerful vision of the world you've imagined—one filled with compassion, peace, kindness, and the love of Christ. Your description brings to mind the fulfillment of God's promises, a world renewed under His reign where harmony reigns, even between the lion and the dove. The imagery of colorful butterflies dancing, tranquil waters, and people helping each other reflects the hope we have in Christ for His millennial reign, where all things will be made right.

John 14:27 is such a fitting verse: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid." That peace is what we hold onto, looking forward to that day when His perfect love will rule over all.

Thank you for sharing this beautiful reflection—it's a wonderful reminder of the hope we have in Christ! Amen.

¶ The wolf shall dwell with the lamb,
and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat,
and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together;
and a little child shall lead them.
