

LET GO AND LET GOD

By Chaplain 193

Proverbs 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths...

Letting go and letting God handle things isn't as easy as it may sound. Sometimes in life when we truly care about someone's health, safety, and wellbeing we tend to want to hang on and not let go even if giving it to God is for the best.

Recently there was a very special person whom God had placed in my life and at some point the situation became too overwhelming for me to handle, then God in His infinite wisdom, power, and love showed up and removed me.

Still it took a long time to "Let go and let God." The truth is even though I let go and let God I still care about this person very much and I pray for this person every day.

The truth is letting go and letting God can sometimes bring about great sadness and a broken heart, but deep down I realize that God is in full control and He is working all things out for His good purpose.

Thank You Abba Father for your blessings and love in my friend's life, Thank You for providing Your healing power in my friend's life and Thank You Abba Father for keeping my friend safe and at peace. I am praying for and I am proclaiming a complete healing and a full recovery for my friend for the glory of God, in Christ Yeshua's Holy Name I pray...Amen John 14:27

Isaiah 41:10 Fear not for I am with you. Be not dismayed for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.
