

Holy Water to Tears of Great Joy

By Chaplain Paul 193

Psalms 1-3 You shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water that brings forth its season, whose leaf also shall not wither. And whatever you do shall prosper.

I went to Church with a very heavy heart the other day and I decided to drink a little holy water and get down on my knees and pray. I bowed my head in tears and began thanking Abba Father for all His blessings and LOVE, then I became touched by the Spirit of God like a gentle, ring-necked turtle dove.

I was suddenly filled with Christ's Spirit and LOVE as our Father in Heaven smiled from above; our Lord's LOVE had touched my broken heart and healed my sorrow, and pain and it was at that very moment in my life I began to live once again.

I stood up on my feet and I began praising God in the highest from the mountains to the sea. Then the holy water in me that I had consumed with a very heavy heart touched my aching soul and was now transformed into tears of gladness, blessings, and great joy for the glory of God...Amen

Jeremiah 31:9-13 9 Tears of joy will stream down their faces, and I will lead them home with great care. They will walk beside quiet streams and on smooth paths where they will not stumble. For I am Israel's father, and Ephraim is my oldest child.

10 "Listen to this message from the LORD, you nations of the world; proclaim it in distant coastlands: The LORD, who scattered His people, will gather them and watch over them as a shepherd does his flock.

11 For the LORD has redeemed Israel from those too strong for them.

12 They will come home and sing songs of joy on the heights of Jerusalem. They will be radiant because of the LORD's good gifts—the abundant crops of grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the healthy flocks and herds. Their life will be like a watered garden, and all their sorrows will be gone.

13 The young women will dance for joy, and the men—old and young—will join in the celebration. I will turn their mourning into joy. I will comfort them and exchange their sorrow for rejoicing...Amen
