

SPARROW

I saw a little brown sparrow fly straight to the top of one of God's purple mountain snow capped peaks, her eye reflected the dawning light of a beautiful sunrise in such a way that it caught my imagination and as I stood there watching with a sense of wide wonder filled with absolute joy I began to see all of life's wonderful possibilities.

For I began to see a happy little sea turtle swimming in the deep blue sea, I saw the Tree of Life standing in the Garden of Eden, I saw the Lion of Judah Who is the Lamb of God, I saw The Good Shepherd standing by the Sheep Gate, I saw the True Vine bursting with righteous fruit for the glory of God, I saw the Bread of Life pointing the Way the Truth and the Life, I saw the Light of the World and I saw the Resurrection and the Life.

I began to see the world around me through the eyes of Christ and suddenly God blessed me with the gift of being able to open my heart and begin loving others as Christ Yeshua loves me.

And as I looked towards the mountain the little brown sparrow was suddenly transformed into a beautiful gray ring necked dove filled with our Lord's Peace Hope and Love. The dove flew down and landed on my shoulder, she looked right at me, smiled and said,

"Yeshua Loves you and so do I."

John 15:12 "And this is My commandment that you love one another as I have Loved You."
