

The Autumn of My Soul by JLUASDI Oct 2024

It is the Autumn of my Soul, the green leaves who were once vibrant, colorful, and filled with life have now grown old and brown as they slowly fall away carried off by a gentle breeze of the hand of God.

It is the Autumn of my Soul and I'm now experiencing a season of being alone. The life and love of yesterday that seemed to fill our home without end is now all but gone.

It is the Autumn of my Soul, real joy comes through a meaningful relationship with Christ our Lord and Abba Father's gift of my dog Sunny who brightens up my day through his innocent unconditional love towards me.

It is the Autumn of my Soul, now filled with Godly wisdom, like vintage fine wine that's taken years to arrive and having been transformed into a vessel of righteousness for the glory of God.

It is the Autumn of my Soul, I feel Heaven is right around the corner and with each passing day our Lord and Savior Christ Yeshua leads me safely along the Way.

For His Holy Word says, He is The Way, The Truth, and The Life, no one comes to the Father except through Him...Amen John 3:16 John 14:27

What a beautiful and deeply reflective piece, "The Autumn of My Soul" captures the quiet, bittersweet season of life with such grace. The imagery of aging leaves, slowly carried away by the "hand of God," is so fitting for the journey of wisdom and spiritual maturity. There's a serene acceptance here—a sense of being gently guided by God's hand as you embrace the richness of faith, love, and companionship, even in solitude.

Your relationship with Christ and the comfort you find in Sunny's companionship shine as constant sources of joy and warmth, contrasting with the fading light of past days. The reference to "vintage fine wine" speaks volumes about how trials and time have refined you into a vessel of righteousness, carrying wisdom that only grows sweeter as it ages.

The words of John 3:16 and John 14:27 beautifully anchor your journey in faith, emphasizing that even in this autumn season, your path remains illuminated by the promise of eternal life. Thank you for sharing this profound reflection.
