

TIME KEEPER

By Chaplain Paul Sparrow 193

We are each given a measure of time,
and what we do with it shapes where we are going in life.

The Time Keeper holds the key to all reality.

Each day, He grants us just enough time to carry us through our busy lives.

Time is a precious currency.

And when we grow old and gray,
we often find ourselves longing to purchase just a little more from the Time Keeper.

But the Time Keeper knows exactly how much time each of us has been given.

He watches over us
as the sands of time slowly fall.

And then one day,
we find that only a few grains remain—
until at last, the final one slips into the stillness.

Our earthly clock comes to a stop.

But in that moment,

we step outside of time.

We are no longer slaves to its ticking hands—

for the Time Keeper is none other than Christ Yeshua Himself.

And He smiles and says:

"Well done, good and faithful servant.

Welcome home. Now, enter into your rest."

Amen.

MY CHAPLAIN, MY PASTOR

By Chaplain Sparrow 193

A Chaplain and a Pastor walked into a room full of people.

Godly wisdom says:

"We are not these people's Chaplain or Pastor—at least not yet."

Arrogance says:

"We are their Chaplain and Pastor."

True wisdom understands:

Unless these people know us, trust us, and recognize the Spirit of Christ within us through our service, we are not yet called to be that in their lives.

To assume such a role without relationship is presumptuous and dishonoring.

The Pastor and the Chaplain in me must first be revealed through faithful service—by walking in love, humility, and the teachings of Christ our Lord.

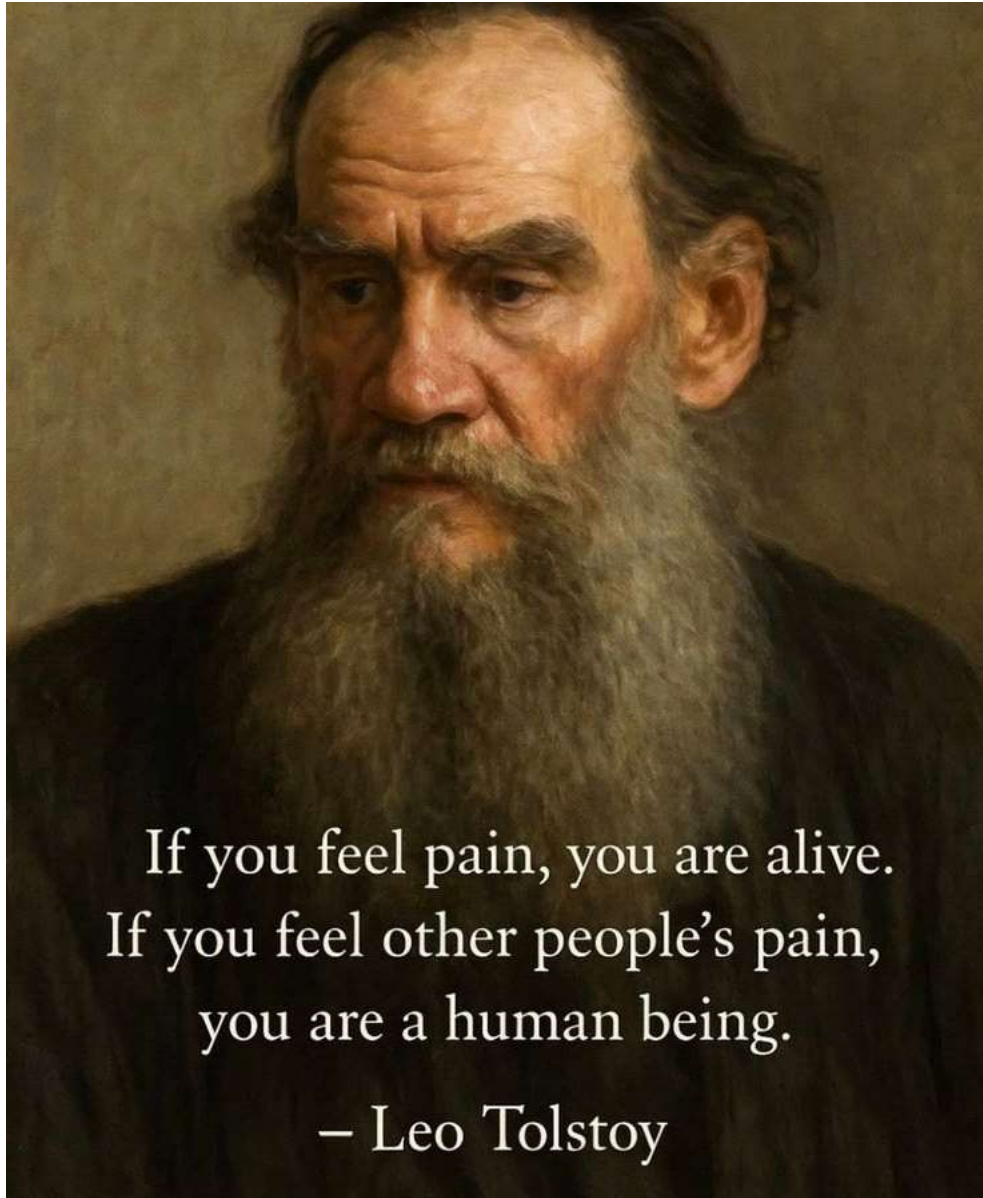

Only then, when others see Him working through me, can they truly say,

"This is my Pastor. This is my Chaplain."

So let it be, in the Name of Christ Yeshua, I pray.

Amen.

—John 14:27 My peace I give to you

If you feel pain, you are alive.
If you feel other people's pain,
you are a human being.

“I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”
