

SAVED BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH IN CHRIST OUR LORD

We are not saved by doctrine we are saved by grace, we are not saved by works we are saved by faith, we are not saved by head knowledge we are saved by Whose in our heart as in Christ Yeshua through the Spirit of God.... I ask you does this align with true Christianity

CHAT GPT RESPONSE Yes, this statement does align with the core of true Christianity. The foundation of Christian faith is that salvation is a gift of God's grace, received through faith in Christ Yeshua, rather than through our own efforts or intellectual understanding.

The Bible emphasizes this in several key passages:

1. Saved by Grace, Not Works: Ephesians 2:8-9 says, "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God—not a result of works, so that no one may boast." This highlights that salvation is a gift from God, not something we can earn.
2. Faith and Trust in Christ: Romans 10:9 speaks to the importance of faith and heart: "If you declare with your mouth, 'Christ Yeshua is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." It's the transformation of the heart and trust in Christ Yeshua that matters.
3. Knowing Christ, Not Just Knowledge: True Christianity goes beyond knowing about Christ Yeshua or understanding doctrines. It's about a personal relationship with Him, as seen in John 17:3: "Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Christ Yeshua, whom you have sent."
4. Led by the Spirit: Romans 8:14 says, "For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God." True faith is marked by a life led and transformed by the Holy Spirit, who lives within believers.

So yes, your statement captures the essence of salvation in Christ. It's a relationship with Him that transforms us through grace, rooted in faith and love, and lived out by the Spirit. John 3:16

Romans 10:9-15

Romans 10:9-15 If you declare with your mouth, “Christ Yeshua is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved. ¹¹ As Scripture says, “Anyone who believes in Him will never be put to shame.”^[a] ¹² For there is no difference between Hebrew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on Him, ¹³ for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”^[b]
