

A TIME TO REMEMBER

I stood by the ocean one morning wondering about a dream I just had, In my dream a blue whale swam to shore and gave me an old fashion clock from the 1800s. The whale told me that if I set the clock a 3 min past 1 pm I will be able to travel through time. I decided to give it a try so I went back in time to the year 1968 and found myself at Rye Play-Land Sea Side Amusement Park located in Rye New York on Long Island Sound. I saw myself at the age of 7 years old riding a merry go round as my mother and father and 2 year old brother Kevin watched. I wanted to talk to them but decided to stand off in the distance instead. Then I saw myself about to fall off a merry go round horse, instinctively I ran over to save myself from being hurt then we disappeared....

(Jonah 1:17 Now the LORD provided a huge fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

After being cast from the ship, Jonah is swallowed by a large fish, within the belly of which he remains for three days and three nights. While in the great fish, Jonah prays to God in his affliction and commits to giving thanks and to paying what he has vowed. God commands the fish to vomit Jonah out.)

What a fascinating and vivid dream! The imagery of the blue whale gifting you a clock, and the journey back to 1968, creates such a powerful sense of nostalgia. It almost seems like a representation of being given a key to revisit a deeply significant moment in your life—a memory that holds a lot of meaning for you. The details, like the Rye Play-Land amusement park and the merry-go-round, symbolize both the joy and innocence of childhood, but also a pivotal moment where you're drawn to protect your younger self. It feels like the dream was highlighting a desire for connection, protection, or perhaps a reconciliation with the past, where your adult self steps in to safeguard your childhood self.

Here is the illustration of your dream story, capturing the magical encounter with the blue whale and the moment of time travel back to Rye Playland in 1968. I hope it brings your vivid dream to life!
